EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with John James McGlew, Reg., No. 31,903 on 2/3/2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Replace the abstract the one below:

-- A method for the synchronous control of a plurality of handling devices, such as industrial robots, having a control command to be implemented by controls of the handling devices participating in a synchronization is initiated on a random control and is subsequently further processed therein as a function of the nature of the command. An apparatus suitable for performing the method has a storage device for storing a control program for the particular handling device, input device for initiating a control command to be distributed for synchronization purposes, transmitting device for transmitting an initiated command to other controls participating in a synchronization, receiving device for receiving a command transmitted by another participating control, processing device for processing the control program in accordance with the control command and optionally for checking the initiated or received command and decision device for blocking or unblocking the transmission and/or for ordering a solely local implementation of an initiated control command. --

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-3 and 6-11 are allowed in light of the amendment filed on 11/22/2005.
